

Unique moments

Unique moments

Yes, life is in the little things.

In those fleeting, unique and unrepeatable moments. They happen right there, at home, at work, in a hotel or in a restaurant; in all those settings where you create your personal collage of little stories.

Enjoying each and every one of those scenes, on your terms, is what authentic “intense living” is all about. At RS Barcelona it gives us a real buzz to create products that accompany you in your everyday experiences, that form part of those moments which may fly by but which stay with you forever.

You and Me table — p. 55-58

A photograph of an outdoor dining area. In the foreground, a black rectangular table is set with several dishes of food, including a white plate with red meat, a glass bowl, and a white plate with bread. There are also bottles of beer on the table. The table is surrounded by wooden benches with black metal legs and grey cushions. Above the table, a black metal pergola structure is visible, with two large green pendant lights hanging from it. In the background, there is a stone wall with a staircase on the left and a wall covered in green vines on the right. The ground is covered in gravel and fallen leaves.

The You and Me collection is an invitation to go al fresco and enjoy the nice weather.
